Caffeinated Lyrics

1. Morning Song

Sleepy eyes, raspy voice, alarm clock warning. Open Bible, coffee cup, 6 o'clock in the morning. I'm looking for another day with Jesus, my Lord. I'm starting with a full cup of His word. Stumbling feet, dormant mind, my soul longing. A sip of Psalms and I wake up, my fears falling. I'm looking for another day with Jesus, my Lord. I'm starting with a full cup of His word. I can get through anything with Jesus, my Lord. I can get through anything with Him. Starting a day in the palm of His hand, is better than outside. Starting a day within His word will set you flyin', ooooohhhh.

2. You Are Holy, God

The sun is rising up as I open my eyes, to the glory of a God who wears no disguise. His heart is there for all who will seek, they will see. It's there for you and me. Birds are singing melodies in Your name. All evidence that Your word is here to stay. All confidence in Your almighty ways, we give our lives to You. Oh, Lord. You are holy, God. All the earth rejoice, You are the King of Love. You are holy, God. And all the stars in the sky seem dim against Your glorious light. Now I sit and wonder at all Your ways, to the wit and wisdom that You have displayed. Your power neverending, but I can't see why You gave Your life for me. We embrace You, Lord. We raise up our hands. We abandon our selfish dreams. For the One who came to break these chains, we are called to give up everything. Everything. You came to earth to take my place. For all the lost You made a way. So I will gather all my strength and worship You.

3. Jesus Town

Destination can be known. We're His creation. We're not alone. Through the spirit we're drawn to faith. And through the spirit we'll find our way. Just around the bend is a place with heavenly light. A place where there's no sin, and love un-ending. I want to walk on streets of gold. I want to see His smiling face. Destination can be seen. Our salvation is given freely. I want to go where grace abounds. I want to go to Jesus Town. Just around the bend is a place with heavenly light. A place where there's no sin and love un-ending. A sky of love unfurled and a sea of grace unbound, a vast and open reign of grace is Jesus Town.

4. Story of Job

This is the story of Job, a man who had everything. His family, his health and his home. Oh, he had everything. But God took it all away just to test his faith. This is the story of Job, a man who lost everything. His children, his health and his home. Oh, he lost everything. But he never lost his faith in God. And now he's a lesson to us. Don't lose your faith in the middle of the night when you start to question the hard times. Believe in God's ways. Hold fast to His word, when all of this world will tempt you to do the sinful act of blaming away. Hold fast to your faith.

5. Wings of a Dove

Father, Lord You are in heaven. And great and mighty is your reign. We come to You for forgiveness. Make us right in Jesus' name. On the wings of a dove, send the Holy Spirit. Fly fast so we might not fall again. With the promise of Your love, we walk with a purpose of changing this world with Your word. Of changing this world with Your word. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on this earth as it is in heaven. Lead us not into temptation, but let us spread Your word to all nations.

6. Thank You, Jesus

You didn't have to take the pain. You didn't have to take the misery on the cross that dreadful day. You didn't have to take the blame. You didn't have to die on Calvary, but instead You chose to save my life. Thank you, Jesus....for loving me....for saving me. On that dark and stormy night, the overwhelming weight of all our sin came crashing down upon your brow. And the ones who threw You down, the very ones who pierced your hands and feet, are the very ones You gave Your life for. Thank You Jesus.... I want to thank You...Jesus, for loving me. I want to thank You....Jesus, for saving me. I want to give You praise. Lord, I wanna spread Your name. I want others to feel just like I do. I'm free now, I'm free now, I'm free now, thank you. I'm free now....thank you.

7. Taylor's Song

There you are my baby girl. Your tears are gentle like the raindrops. Longing for comfort and embrace. Soon your eyes will be filled with wonder. Hush little baby, don't cry, you are my world right now. God placed an angel in my life. You need not worry now my girl, you're in my arms right now. God placed a father in your life. So when your precious heart is hurried, and you're afraid...you can look to my direction to show you the way.

Through the trick and the thin I will be by your side. In the still of the night I will be there. And this song that I sing, that I sing for you, is a song that God sings, that He sings for me too. There you are my baby girl. With the sprinkle of water comes the spirit into your world. You'll be so pretty like your mother. When it comes to a kind heart there's no other quite like hers. So hush little baby, don't cry, you are her world right now. God placed an angel in her life. You need not worry now my girl, you're in her arms right now, God placed a mother in your life.

8. Rock of Ages

Who to trust when I am troubled? Who to seek when I am scared? Who to fix a faith that's falling? Who to call when no one cares? Who's the rock of my salvation? Who's the healer of my heart? Who's the pillar of my patience? Who was there right from the start? Rock of Ages stand by me. Be the refuge I have grown to know You to be. Rock of Ages stand by me. You are always with me. Who to give my undivided loyalty and humble praise? Who to thank for all my gladness? Who's the ruler of my days? Rock of Ages stand by me.....

9. Acoustic Medley

No words. Just some wood and steel.

10. Love of My Life

There are a million things that I can thank God for. He's given me everything and He longs to give me more. But there is this one thing that I can never thank Him enough for. It is you, my special love, the love of my life. When I look into your eyes, I see God's plan for my life. I can see a million days with you by my side. And as I stand here on this day, professing my love this way, before the Father, Son & Spirit, I offer my love, my life, to you. A number of trials will come our way. But through all the hard times, through all the hard times our faithfulness won't sway. For God is right here, love, His love is here to stay. He'll keep me tied tight to you, the love of my life.....so as we say these vows, and promise our love..let us turn our heads to heaven, and thank God above.

11. Coming of Our King

People of faith, fall to your knees, as we honor the coming of our King. Lift up your hands in praise to our God, as we welcome the coming of our King. Jesus is born, a baby adorn with love, and spirit from above. God's only Son, given to each one, who will claim Him the savior of their soul. (Continued on next page)

11. Coming of Our King

Children of God send word to this world, that Christ Jesus has come to set you free. He lives in us, emanuel. Thank you, Father, for giving us our King.....We come together and celebrate. We lift our voices, lift our hands up high.

12. Lift You Up

Reign in mercy. Reign in grace. Rain down Your wonderous ways. Take our hearts and reign in them, Lord, that we may praise Your name....Jesus, we lay down our pride, just to lift You up! Jesus, we lay down our lives, just to lift You up! Reign in wisdom. Reign in power. Show Thy face every hour. Take our faith, and build it up, Lord, that we may praise Your name....There's no greater name. There's no better way. There's no higher name, than the name of Jesus!

13. Interstate, Sunny Day

Driving down the interstate, sunny day. I can tell that things are going to go my way today. I can feel God's presence in my life. It's just one of those days when everything feels just right. Hello, Spirit, Spirit, Hello! I can feel your presence from my head down to my toes. I get such a great feeling when I know You're there. You get me through things and places I could never bear alone. Hello, Spirit, Spirit, Hello! Driving down the interstate, sunny day. Nothing in this world could make my attitude turn grey. For the Holy Spirit is guiding my life. It's just one of those days when everything goes just right. Hello, Spirit, Spirit, Hello!....Look, I just passed up my exit. But it's just because I'm so caught up in You.

14. My Super Hero

I don't care about a man who can jump higher than the tallest building. I don't care about a man who can fly by the silver lining. I don't care about a man who can run faster than a runaway train, oh no, cause I'm related to a God who can do all of that and more, yeah. My super hero, is taller than the tallest mountain. My super hero, is the one who created the skies. My super hero is faster than the speed of light, oh yeah. My super hero, His name is Jesus Christ! I don't care about a man who can stop a bullet with his teeth. I don't care about a man who can see right through the concrete. I don't care about a man who can burn things with a laser, oh no, cause I'm related to a God who can do all of that and more, yeah! My super hero can bring a dead man back to life. My super hero sees all things day and night. My super hero is a comic book fantasy come true. My super hero, His name is Jesus Christ! Oh, He's faster than lightning and stronger than thunder. And he's brighter than the sunrise, wider than the open sky!
